Name _____   M. _____ No. _____

Some people's conversations have been overheard at a restaurant. The second half of the statement still needs to be reordered.

Luckily enough!

1	If I'd driven any faster, …….	we wouldn't have won the match. (A)
2	If she'd fallen down the stairs, …….	they would have been more expensive. (B)
3	If you hadn't taken me to the airport, …….	she would have hurt herself badly. (C)
4	If the referee hadn't given us a penalty, …….	I would have missed my flight. (D)
5	If I hadn't bought the movie tickets online, …….	I could have got a speeding fine. (E)

Too bad!

6	If you had worn a warmer coat, …….	Jon would have got accepted to the school. (F)
7	If he'd been on time for his interview, …….	they would have caught the thief. (G)
8	If your parents had come with us, …….	I would have applied for it. (H)
9	If I had known about the job, …….	you wouldn't have been so cold. (I)
10	If the police had arrived five minutes earlier, ……	they would have enjoyed the trip. (J)

Text source: Latham-Koenig, C.L. and Oxenden, C. 2013. English File- Intermediate. Oxford University Press.

A.   Look at the "Luckily enough!" box. Notice Number 2, "If she'd fallen down the stairs".
To interpret this statement, please circle the best choice to fill in the blank:

"Luckily enough, the person _ fell / did not fall down the stairs."

B.   Look at the "Too bad!" box. Notice Number 6, "If you had worn a warmer coat".
To interpret this statement, please circle the best choice to fill in the blank:

"Too bad, you _ wore / did not wear a warmer coat."

C.   All the ten statements talk about the _ past / present / future.

D.   Based on A and B, did the incidents in the if-statements 1-10 really happen? Yes / No

E.   Match the phrases. Put A-J together with the appropriate if-statements.

F.   Did the incidents in the second half of statements 1-10 really happen? Yes / No

G.   Underline the verb form in both the first and second halves of the statements.

H.   Try making up some statements of "Luckily enough" and "Too bad".
Use the underlined form in (G).

    - If_____

    - If_____

    -_____ if_____

    -_____ if_____